BURNED AT STAKE.

A Negro Roasted in Kentucky for Murdering a Woman.

SCENE WAS AWFUL.

The Negro's Eyes Were Cut Out, His Neck Lacerated and His Head Beaten Even Before the Work of the Fire.

Maysville, Dec. 6.—Dick Coleman, the negro who murdered Mrs. James Lashbrook, who had given him a home and board, was taken from officers by a mob of 1000 men and burned to a stake.

The mob was led by the husband of the negro's victim. He dragged the shrieking criminal through the principal streets of the town, bound him to a small tree and set fire to the brush about him and stood guard there until he was dead.

This is the first time anything of this kind has ever happened in this city and excitement is intense. All was done that was possible by the sheriff and his guards to prevent the lynching, but in the face of such a mob of people irrespective of color, it was useless to attempt to do anything to save him.

The voice of the negro could be heard above the cries of the mob pleading for his life, but the mob only heard the cries of Mrs. Lashbrook. The mob carried Coleman to a small hollow near the railroad track where they bound him tightly to a sapling. Then they heaped a huge pile of brushwood and timber around him and fired the stack, while his eyes rolled horribly. Some one cut out his eyes and his head rolled around and he was believed to be dead.

The scene was an awful one. Around the funeral pyre were hundreds of mad-dened people, headed by the husband of the dead woman. A dozen torches were applied simultaneously.

Before the roasting began Coleman was almost dead. The rope had torn and lacerated his neck, and his face was terribly beaten up.

FAVORABLE TO QUAY.

His Friends Claim He Will Be Seated in the Senate.

Washington, Dec. 6.—As the result of a canvass made by Mr. Quay's friends since the senate convened, it is asserted that 46 of the 85 senators will vote to seat him as senator from Pennsylvania. These figures are obtained by counting the 30 senators now in the senate who voted for Corbett or Mantle and 16 others from whom it is asserted, promises have been obtained favorable to Mr. Quay.

Senator Chandler has called a special meeting of the committee on elections to consider the case of Mr. Quay. Mr. Chandler would like to have the case disposed of at one sitting. As the committee has already passed upon practically the same principles involved in connection with the Corbett and Mantle cases, he can see no reason for long discussion. As a vacancy exists on the committee, however, and the two parties are arranging for the reorganization of all the committees, it is not believed the Quay case will be disposed of until the committee has been reorganized. There is some talk of increasing its membership, and if this is done, Republican leaders will try to have the new Republican member favorable to Mr. Quay and thus assure a majority report in favor of seating him.

The fact that a majority of the Pennsylvania legislature, Republicans and Democrats, have petitioned the senate against the seating of Mr. Quay, will be used for all its worth by his opponents and indications are that the fight will be bitter and long.

Woman Fatally Injured.

Evansville, Ind., Dec. 6.—An explosion of a can of gasoline here will result in the death of Mrs. Albert Enloe. Mrs. Enloe discovered the oil in a lamp had nearly burned out, and taking a can which she thought contained coal oil from the closet, she unscrewed the burner without extinguishing the blaze from the wick and started to fill the lamp, when it exploded, setting fire to her clothing. Before aid reached her she was horribly burned about her body, face and head and is dying. Mrs. Enloe claims the grocer had made a mistake in sending a can of gasoline in place of coal oil.

Denison, Tex., Dec. 6.—The work of extending the Sherman, Shreveport and Southern railway from Jefferson to Washom will be commenced about Jan. 1, all of the legal preliminary steps to that end having been taken by the officials.

Bank Dividend.

Washington, Dec. 6.—The comptroller of the currency has declared a final dividend of 16 per cent in favor of the creditors of the Citizens' National bank of San Angelo, making in all 91 per cent on claims approved, amounting to $35,726.58.

NEWS FROM BOER WAR

Garrison at Ladysmith Still Holding Out Stoutly.

SHORTAGE OF FOOD.

Boer Artillery Fire Is Increasing in Volume and Destruction—It Is Believed Boers Are Preparing for Final Attack.

London, Dec. 6.—The budget of news from Ladysmith which has arrived here brings the history of the beleaguered garrison up to Nov. 29. In spite of the rumors of a retrograde movement upon the part of the Boers, the stories just received show the garrison although still strong, is suffering from confinement and is restricted as to diet and the increasing volume of Boer artillery fire, especially that in addition to the heavy caliber guns placed in position 5000 yards from the western defenses. Dispatches relate that the Boers have discovered the most vulnerable points of the garrison and the shelling is becoming disagreeably effective. Rations have been reduced and there is a great deal of sickness. Nevertheless, the troops of the garrison are in every way preparing to meet the assault which is anticipated the Boers will carry out in the final effort to reduce the city.

The belief is current in Ladysmith that the Boers are preparing for a retrograde movement after another attack. Several bodies of burghers are reported to have been seen on Nov. 28 moving in the direction of Drakensburg range, while on Nov. 29 detachments were observed journeying northward with wagons. Discord between the Transvaalers and Free Staters are also reported. There are no indications however, that the Boers are preparing to dismantle their gun positions, but the idea prevails in some quarters that the continued shelling of the place is intended to cover the retirement of other Boer forces toward the Transvaal frontier.

Pretoria dispatches of Saturday, Dec. 2, via Lorenzo, Marquese, Monday, Dec. 4, however announced the Boer council was on Dec. 2 planning a renewed assault on Ladysmith.

A dispatch from Frere, dated Sunday, Dec. 3, reports that in Colonel Lord Dundonald's reconnaissance near Colenso 15 Boers were killed and many wounded and that the road bridge across Tugela river was intact.

The same message reports President Kruger as being anxious for the burghers to leave Ladysmith in order to oppose the British marching in the direction of Pretoria from the west.

Advices from Putters Kraal, the headquarters of General Gatacre's division, dated Saturday, Dec. 2, says the Boers entered Dodrecht that morning. This, it is added, is probably Grobler's force of 1500 men from Stormberg.

There is a possibility that General Buller will ask for further reinforcements. A brigade of militia will be sent to South Africa with the view of conciliating militiamen who think that branch of the service is slighted in favor of the reservists.

In compliance with a requisition signed by Messrs. W. Redmond John Clancy and others, the lord mayor of Dublin, Locum Tenens, has called a meeting of the corporation for Dec. 11, to dispose of a motion which the corporation deplore as an "infliction on South African republic in this lamentable, cruel and unnecessary war" and protest against the policy of "involving the loss of life and enormous expenditures."

Smelters Roasted to Death.

Middlesborough, Ky., Dec. 6.—Two smelters endured a terrible death here. Monroe Smiley and Archibald Marchbanks were working under the huge 10-ton tank, containing molten iron ore, in the plant of the Virginia Iron Ore and Furnace company. Without warning the four brick walls supporting the tank collapsed, letting it fall. The brick debris prevented the men from being crushed, but at the same time prevented their escape, and the two, whose cries were heard for 10 minutes by their helpless comrades, stood in the little prison of death and were baked alive. They were conscious for nearly 10 minutes, as could be told by their appeals for aid, but when, 20 minutes later, their fellow employees reached them, the bodies were black and hard.

Negroses for Samoa and Hawaii.

Montgomery, Ala., Dec. 6.—J. H. Leftwich, a negro and Federal receivers of public moneys of Alabama, has left for the Hawaiian and Samoan islands to investigate the conditions there with reference to the proposed emigration of southern negroes. He goes as an agent of his race and a large sugar producing syndicate which has made substantial investments there. The syndicate has experimented with native labor, with Chinese and Japanese, but without good results, and has decided the southern negro will suit for the purpose. Leftwich states the plan contemplates the

Against the Married Women.

Washington, Dec. 6.—First Assistant Postmaster General Heath in a decision announces that "the department has decided it would be incompatible with the best interests of the service to retain married women as postoffice clerks." The department has, therefore, ruled that when a female postoffice clerk marries it will be necessary for her to resign from the service.

General Gordon for Expansion.

Minneapolis, Dec. 6.—General John B. Gordon of Georgia, commander-in-chief of the Confederate Veterans of America, made a declaration on the Philippines question here. He said: "My sympathies go out to the men who are fighting under the star and stripes wherever they be and I am not in favor of pulling the flag down. I guess that shows where I stand."

NO WORD FROM YOUNG.

He is Supposed to Be on a Hot Trail
After Aguinaldo.

Washington, Dec. 6.—General Otis has cabled the war department that he has had no word from General Young for a week. This is taken to indicate that General Young is continuing in hot pursuit of Aguinaldo and is probably in the country where he regards it unsafe to use couriers. General Otis' dispatch which follows also gives an official account of Lieutenant Colonel Parker's engagement at Vigan.

"General Young with 13 companies of infantry and nine troops of cavalry have not been heard from since Nov. 29. He was then about 20 miles south of Vigan and most of the troops were marching to his support, but he then had with him three troops of cavalry and a battalion of the Thirty-third infantry and Maccabee scouts. One company of the Thirty-third infantry was sent by boat to Vigan to reinforce the navy there. Lieutenant Colonel Parker of the Forty-fifth reported from Vigan on Dec. 5 that he had not heard from General Young for a week."

"Insurgents 800 strong made an attack on the force, consisting of company B, and 153 sick and footsore men of the Thirty-third infantry, at 4 o'clock on the morning of Dec. 4, entering the city in darkness. Severe street fighting ensued and continued for four hours. The enemy were driven out leaving 40 dead, 32 prisoners, including many officers, and 84 rifles. They are now on the outskirts entrenching. Lieutenant Colonel Parker says he can hold out indefinitely and has plenty of rations and ammunition. His loss was eight enlisted men killed and three wounded. One hundred and sixty men are now being transported from San Fabian to his relief. General Young must be in the vicinity with a large force."

AMERICANS ATTACKED.

Eight of the Garrison at Vigan Killed and Many Wounded.

Manila, Dec. 6.—A force of insurgents, estimated at 800, attacked the American garrison of 200 at Vigan, province of South Ilocos. The American loss was eight killed and many wounded.

After very hard fighting the Filipinos were driven off and through the mountains, leaving 35 dead.

Colonel Bisbee is now reinforcing the garrison.

Fears are entertained regarding various small bodies of General Young's troops in the province of Abra.

Ready to Surrender.

New York, Dec. 6.—A special cablegram from Hong Kong to The Evening World says the Filipinos there announce that Aguinaldo is ready to surrender if Consul Wildman will receive him at Manila. The dispatch adds that the Filipino junta at Hong Kong sent a communication to Aguinaldo last week and advised him then to throw himself on the mercy of the United States.

Meade Reaches Port Said.

Washington, Dec. 6.—The arrival of the transport Meade at Port Said with the Forty-third infantry is announced at the war department. No casualties reported.

KENTUCKY ELECTION.

Board of Election Commissioners Hearing
Arguments on Specific Points.

Frankfo. Ky., Dec. 6.—The state board of election commissioners, sitting as a canvassing board, finished its work at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon and at 10 o'clock this morning the members of the board will sit in the state senate chamber as a contesting board to hear arguments in the cases of 11 contested counties. The first great fight will come up on the question of whether or not the board has the right to go behind the certified returns, filed with the secretary of state by the different counties. On the issue of this point will rest the name of the next governor of Kentucky.

On the face of the returns now on file with the secretary of state, Mr. Taylor has a plurality of 2383, his total vote being 193,713, against 191,331 for Goebel.

Arguing Two Specific Points.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 6.—Argument is progressing on two propositions before the election commissioners. One is to determine the right of the commissioners to go behind the returns, and the other as to the right to receive amended returns. The argument may last a day or two.

Illinoisans Buys a Big Ranch.

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 6.—A southern California ranch sale has been effected here, the State Bank and Trust company of this city sold to Lewis E. Ingalls of Juliet, Ill., the celebrated Los Penas Quitos cattle ranch, located 20 miles west of San Diego. The ranch which comprises 7000 acres was owned jointly by the bank and J. D. McNab of Riverside. The purchase price was $92,500.

Boy's Narrow Escape.

Indianapolis, Dec. 6.—A metal gas retort at the works of the Indianapolis Calcium Light company exploded shattering the windows and otherwise tearing up the room in which it was located. A boy who was sitting on the retort at the time was hurled against the ceiling, but came out of the explosion uninjured.

Promotion for Wood.

Washington, Dec. 6.—The president has nominated Brigadier General Leonard Wood to be a major general of volunteers.

FIRE AT MERIDIAN.

Property to the Amount of $300,000 Destroyed with $200,000 Insurance.

Meridian, Miss., Dec. 6.—The most disastrous fire in this city's history occurred Tuesday night. The Rosenbaum building situated in the heart of the business portion of the city is a mass of ruins and adjacent buildings are seriously damaged by flames and water. The fire was discovered about 8 o'clock in the Rosenbaum building, and owing to the difficulty experienced by the firemen in getting to the fire, the flames soon ate their way to the walls of the buildings, completely gutting it. Early in the action the firemen turned their attention to the houses adjoining and across the street from the burning building. The whole block at one time seemed doomed, but the department assisted by hundreds of citizens, succeeded in confining the fire to the Rosenbaum building, and to the Handley-Wyatt building immediately adjoining on the east. It is not known how the fire originated.

The total loss is estimated at $300,000. A close estimate of the insurance places the figures at $200,000.

THREE MEN KILLED.

Two White Men and a Negro Killed in the Territory.

South McAlester, I. T., Dec. 6.—A courier brings news of a horrible butchery near Dennefield, 50 miles northwest, in which two white men and one negro were killed and a negro was wounded by negroes.

Dave Nicholson, Enoch Wilberley, white, and some negroes, were gambling. A fight ensued between a negro and two whites. Other negroes interfered and in the affray shot and killed Nicholson, Enoch Wilberley and the negro who began the fight. The white men were unarmed and were completely at the mercy of the negroes.

Officers have been sent to investigate the killing.

Desperate Encounter.

Columbia, S. C., Dec. 6.—There was a desperate fight in the suburbs of Greenville in which Dispensary Constables Cooley and Cornwell were engaged in a hand to hand combat with George Howard and an unknown party who was running a blockade whisky wagon. The constables seized the kegs of whisky in the wagon and attempted to arrest Howard. It is not known who precipitated the encounter, but Howard, who is a cripple, and a typical mountaineer, was shot five times. He is in a dying condition. Cornwell, who was married just two months ago, is dying from a wound in the abdomen. Cooley was shot in the thigh. The unknown man escaped.

Double Murder or Suicide.

Kearney, Neb., Dec. 6.—A mysterious double murder or murder and suicide, occurred at Odessa, near here Monday night. Mrs. F. L. Desmore is dead, as is also Fred Lane. Desmore came over to a neighbors and told him that Lane had killed Mrs. Desmore and then committed suicide. The Desmore and Lane families lived in a double house. Mrs. Desmore's death is evidently due to poison and Lane's to a bullet wound. Desmore and his wife had only been married a few months.

Texas Trust Statute.

Cleburne, Tex., Dec. 6.—The first case involving the Texas statute against trusts is on trial here in the district court before Judge Hall and a jury. The case is that of the Burton-Lingo Lumber company et al vs. W. H. Comer, in which plaintiff seeks damages, alleging the defendants' failure to comply with a contract to quit the lumber business in Cleburne for consideration of $7810, the amount of which he acknowledges paying.

Fined for Issuing a Pass.

Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 6.—An opinion has been handed down by the North Carolina supreme court holding the Southern railway liable to the law imposing a fine of $1000 for issuing a free pass in this state. The case was sent up in April, the Southern railway being indicted in Burke county for giving a free pass to T. N. Hallyburton, while he was doorkeeper of the house of the North Carolina legislature in 1897.

School Teacher Killed.

Thompkinsville, Ky., Dec. 6.—O. D. Saunders, a school teacher, was called out of his school house at Akersville, in the western portion of this county, and stabbed in the throat and killed by Willie Harlin of Macon county, Tenn. Last Saturday night the school house at Akersville was burned, and Mr. Saunders had accused Willie and John Harlin and two other boys of the crime. The Harlins and two Akers boys are under arrest.

Bank Robbery.

Pontiac, Ills., Dec. 6.—The bank at Connell, Ills., eight miles from here, was robbed of $8000 in currency. The robbers blew the large safe open with dynamite. Two men suspected of the crime have been arrested.

Consolidation Ratified.

Chicago, Dec. 6.—The consolidation of the Pullman Palace car company and its rival, the Wagner Palace car company, into one concern, was ratified at a special meeting of the stockholder of the Pullman Car company.

Roy Morton Released.

Dallas, Dec. 6.—Roy Morton has been released for killing little Nora St. Clair. The coroner's verdict was that the shooting was accidental. The boy was 14 years old and the girl was only 11.

Robertson Found Guilty.

Houston, Dec. 6.—In the criminal district court here, Henry Robertson was found guilty of burglary and got two years in the penitentiary.

Houston & Texas Central Railroad Company. d jan 19

AGAINST MR. ROBERTS

Denied a Seat in the House Until an Investigation.

DEFENDED HIMSELF.

Mr. Roberts Spoke for an Hour and His Plea Found Sympathizers in the Gallery—Proceedings of the Senate.

Washington, Dec. 6.—After an interesting debate of three hours, the house yesterday by a vote of 302 to 30, adopted the resolution offered by Mr. Taylor of Ohio for the appointment of a special committee to investigate the charges against Brigham H. Roberts, the Mormon representative elect from Utah. Previously the house had rejected a substitute resolution offered by Mr. Richardson, the leader of the minority, to allow Mr. Roberts to be sworn in and to send the whole question to the judiciary committee.

The substitute resolution by no means commanded the full Democratic vote. Only 57 members voted for it. Of the 80 who voted against the Taylor resolution, all were Democrats but two, Mr. Loud, Republican of California, and Mr. Newlands, Silverite of Nevada.

By the terms of the resolution Mr. Mr. Roberts is not only excluded from all participation in the proceedings of the house until the committee reports and the house passes upon his case, but he is denied a seat in the hall. Whether this will be interpreted to deny him admission within the chamber pending the disposition of his case is yet to be decided.

The most remarkable feature of the debate was the fact that Mr. Roberts' presentation of his own side of the case, which lasted almost an hour, became so absorbing that he won the sympathy of many of those in the galleries and was several times showered with applause. It was evident that he realized that the house was overwhelmingly against him and at times he spoke fiercely and defiantly.

The Senate.

Washington, Dec. 6.—At the opening of today's session of the senate the annual reports of the secretary of the treasury, the attorney general, comptroller of the currency and report of other officials were presented.

Free Homes Bill.

Washington, Dec. 6.—Delegate Flynn has introduced his free homes bill, providing for free homesteads on the public lands in Oklahoma Territory for actual bona fide settlers and reserving the public lands for that purpose. The same bill passed the house March 16, 1896.

Presidential Nominations.

Washington, Dec. 6.—The president has sent the following nominations to the senate:

Heaton W. Harris of Ohio, to be consul at Mannheim, Germany.

Brigadier General Leonard Wood of United States volunteers, to be major general of volunteers.

Colonels Edgar R. Kellogg, Sixth United States infantry; Gilbert S. Carpenter, Eighteenth United States infantry; William I. Kobbe, Thirty-fifth United States infantry and J. Franklin Bell Thirty-sixth United States volunteers, to be brigadier generals.

May Appoint Roberts Senator.

Washington, Dec. 6.—If Mr. Roberts is finally rejected by the house of Representatives, as it seems inevitable, there is a possibility that he may come forward as a claimant for a seat in the senate. His rejection by the house, it is expected, will add to his popularity in Utah, and it is suggested that if Mr. Quay is seated by the senate, the Democratic governor of Utah may appoint Mr. Roberts to fill the vacancy that exists in Utah's representation in that body.

November Coinage.

Washington, Dec. 6.—The monthly statement of the directors of the mint show that the total coinage executed at the mints of the United States during November was $9,511,070 as follows: Gold, $6,643,700; silver, $2,612,000; minor coins, $355,370.

More Holland Boats.

Washington, Dec. 6.—Two Holland boats are to be built at once and many more are soon to be ordered.

Evangelist Under Arrest.

Palmyra, Mo., Dec. 6.—Rev. D. R. White, a colored evangelist from St. Louis, did not fill his appointment to preach at the Park Baptist church here, for the reason that he had an engagement in the county jail, which the sheriff declined to permit him to break. He was caught in a crowded dry goods store in the act of shoplifting and was promptly arrested and locked up. White wore a new suit of clothes, an ulster and patent leather shoes. In one coat pocket he had the manuscript for the sermon he was to preach, and in another a half empty bottle of whisky. He will be arraigned on a charge of shoplifting.

Deputy Sheriff Slain.

Creston, Ia., Dec. 6.—Deputy Sheriff Tom Walsh was murdered by George Williams, a farmer, who resides two miles south of town. The tragedy took place on Williams' farm, and was the result of the deputy enforcing an attachment proceeding. The excitement in town increased so rapidly that the officers spirited Williams to Osceola.
